Pijoan, Joseph

June 1918

(24)

73

Strathgowan Crescent,

Lawrence Park,

T o r o n t o, Ont.,

June 13th, 1918.

Sir Robert A. Falconer, C.M.G., M.A., L.L.D.,
University of Toronto,
T o r o n t o,
Ontario.

Dear Sir:-

Being still in this Country, where I propose to spend next Winter, I again have the honor to offer to you my services in any educational work in the Department of Languages or elsewhere.

As I mentioned before, I am anxious to help you in these strenuous times, and do not expect any remuneration or salary of any kind for my services.

I will be away from Toronto for a week, so if you desire to make an appointment with me, kindly let me know a few days in advance.

In the meantime -

I remain,

Your obedient servant,

Joseph Pijoan

Formerly of the University of Barcelona.

June 14th, 1918

Mr. Joseph Pjean,

Strathgowan Crescent,

Lawrence Park, Toronto.

Dear Sir:

In the absence of Sir Robert Falconer I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter and to say that the appointments in Modern Languages have all been made for the ensuing winter, but I shall bring your kind offer to the attention of the President when he returns. The President will be back only for an old day and will be out of Canada until October.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.